TUESDAYS

Prayer Through the Esther, Purim, Persia Paradigm

Esther 9:1

“נָהָפֵךְ הוּא!” (V'nahafoch hu): The Divine Reversal. A holy turning point, a glorious and peaceful counter-revolution. Pray for God's sudden and decisive turnaround in Iran and for victories that come at the last moment and defy human expectation.

Esther 3:1—10

Understanding the spiritual battle. Pray with awareness of the spiritual warfare rooted in the spirit of Amalek, manifested through Haman the Agagite, historic and modern Jew-hatred, anti-Zionism, and opposition to Israel. Scripture points to Persia as a central arena of this conflict (see Daniel 10 and the “Prince of Persia”), revealing the demonic strategies behind the role the Iranian regime has played as an evil, strategic “head of the octopus,” whose goal has been to surround, strangle, and annihilate Israel.

Esther 4:13—15

The role of women in God's redemptive plan. Pray for the women of Iran and the region, recognizing their vital role in moments of national deliverance. As with Esther, this battle is not only for men. The horrific suppression and violence against women martyrs, such as Mahsa Amini in 2022, have testified to the world just how evil the regime of the Ayatollahs is. Ask God to redeem, restore, and activate the courage, calling, and prophetic purpose of women in Iran today.

THURSDAYS

Prayer for the Isaiah 19 Highway

Isaiah 19:23—25

Verse 23

Pray for God to continue raising up a “highway of peace and cooperation” stretching across the Middle East, from Egypt in the west to Assyria and Elam (Iran) in the east, with Israel in the center.

Verse 24

Pray for threefold unity among believers across the Middle East, that together we may become a blessing to the whole earth.

Verse 25

Pray for the global Church to gain understanding and discernment of how God is moving among the covenantal descendants of Abraham throughout the Middle East.
